Remembering September 11th

By Newspaper Team

Seventeen years ago, the country came to a halt. This September 11th marks the 16th anniversary of the September 11th terrorist attacks against the United States at the World Trade Centers, the Pentagon, and aboard United Flight 93. Almost 3,000 innocent people passed away on this tragic day. We honor those who fell and all those who sacrificed their lives to save their fellow Americans. September 11th is a day of remembrance. We never forget.

We here at ACSP know how to be festive. Look below for upcoming holiday celebrations in September! On September 3rd, we have Labor Day, where we celebrate the labor force by taking a day off. September 11th will be Patriot Day at ACSP. Being a patriot is loving your county. There are many ways to let our patriotism shine, such as voting, pledging allegiance to the flag, etc. We also commemorate the tragedy that happened 17 years ago. We never forget. Finally, get your maracas, flags, and food ready! It's that time of year again; Hispanic Heritage is in full swing. Show off your Hispanic pride by representing your country.
