Thanksgiving: How ACSP Gives Back.

By Newspaper Team

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, ACSP is doing their part to help the less fortunate. Starting November 1st, ACSP is collecting donations for Blessing bags. Running through the 15th of November, every grade level will have an opportunity to help! Blessing bags will go into the community to aid those affected by unforeseen circumstances. Look below to see how you and your grade level can help.

- Kindergarten: Travel size baby wipes and travel size Kleenex
- 1st Grade: Toothbrushes, toothpaste, and deodorant
- 2nd Grade: Snacks (cookies, crackers, raisins)
- 3rd Grade: Mini first aid kits, band aids, chapstick
- 4th Grade: Individually heated pain patches, gum
- 5th Grade: Packaged socks and gallon size Ziploc bags

- Contact your child's homeroom teacher if you would like to create a donation box for your child's homeroom.

Tiger of the Month/ Progress Reports

Grinch hates Christmas time. This Christmas, the Whos decide that they want Christmas to be bigger, brighter, and louder than ever! To keep his peace and quiet, the Grinch decides there is only one solution. He decides that he must steal Christmas! In order to do so, the Grinch will pretend to be Santa Claus on Christmas Eve. The only problem is that Cindy Lou, a young and cheerful Who plots to trap Santa to express her gratitude. Will the Grinch successfully steal Christmas and regain his peace and quiet? Will Cindy Lou get her way?

Get your popcorn and your holiday spirit on to catch The Grinch in theaters and find out!

Thanksgiving with ACSP Tigers!

Our Newspaper Team caught up with fellow tigers to ask about Thanksgiving Traditions.

NT: What are your favorite Thanksgiving traditions?

My mom likes to invite my family and friends. We bring turkey, ham, and mashed potatoes. The sweet potato casserole and Mac and Cheese are my favorites! – Samantha Vaval

I like to be with my family and my dog Spot. I love eating and watching a movie at 10pm. – Odelmis Hidalgo

I like to go outside and play with my dogs. The food is also good! - Penelope Hernandez

NT: What is your favorite Thanksgiving treat?

My favorite treat is rice! – Ilen Santos

My favorite treat is apples!
–Alan Delgado

Turkey or mashed potatoes! Or even tacos!

Roaring Robots are Going to States!

By Newspaper Team

Congratulations to our Roaring robots! Both team A and team B are going to be competing at States! After rigorous competitions over the past weekends, both teams qualified. Mr. Matus, the coach and head of the robotics team couldn't be prouder. Mr. Matus said, "We worked hard and all the students showed tremendous dedication to their craft. I'm glad all that hard work paid off. The kids deserve to go to States". Please remember to congratulate the members of the Roaring Robots on a job well done. You an also purchase a Roaring Robots t-shirt for just $15 dollars to support the team. We are so proud of you Tigers!
