SECOND LADY USHA VANCE

ACADEMIR CHARTER SCHOOLS

Dear Parents and Guardians,

In preparation for the 2026–2027 school year and to support continued academic growth, the curriculum team at AcadeMir Charter Schools has developed grade-level summer learning assignments designed to help prevent the “summer slide” and keep students academically engaged throughout the summer months. This year, we are excited to partner with the Second Lady’s Summer Reading Challenge to further promote literacy and foster a love of reading among our students and families. While students will still be required to read their assigned grade-level summer novel, the novel will now count as one of the twelve books submitted as part of the Summer Reading Challenge.

Research consistently shows that regular reading supports long-term academic success and cognitive development. We encourage families to make reading both enjoyable and meaningful throughout the summer. All students are required to complete the Summer Reading Challenge and read their assigned grade-level novel. Students should also be prepared to discuss their literary journey with classmates when school resumes. The assigned summer novel assignment is due on the first day of school, and the completed Summer Reading Challenge submission is due on September 4, 2026. We greatly appreciate your partnership and support in helping your child remain engaged, inspired, and academically prepared throughout the summer break.

Warm regards,
AcadeMir Charter Schools Administration

Estimados Padres y Tutores:

Como preparación para el año escolar 2026–2027 y con el propósito de apoyar el continuo crecimiento académico de nuestros estudiantes, el equipo curricular de AcadeMir Charter Schools ha desarrollado actividades de aprendizaje de verano por nivel escolar, diseñadas para ayudar a prevenir el “summer slide” o pérdida de aprendizaje durante el verano y mantener a los estudiantes académicamente comprometidos. Este año, nos complace asociarnos con el Summer Reading Challenge de la Segunda Dama para continuar promoviendo la alfabetización y fomentar el amor por la lectura entre nuestros estudiantes y familias. Aunque los estudiantes seguirán teniendo la obligación de leer la novela asignada para su grado escolar, dicha novela contará como uno de los doce libros requeridos para completar el Summer Reading Challenge.

Las investigaciones demuestran consistentemente que la lectura regular favorece el éxito académico y el desarrollo cognitivo a largo plazo. Motivamos a las familias a hacer de la lectura una experiencia agradable y significativa durante el verano. Todos los estudiantes deberán completar el Summer Reading Challenge y leer la novela asignada para su grado escolar. Además, los estudiantes deberán estar preparados para compartir y discutir su experiencia literaria con sus compañeros al inicio del nuevo año escolar. La asignación de la novela de verano deberá entregarse el primer día de clases, y la entrega completa del Summer Reading Challenge vencerá el 4 de septiembre de 2026. Agradecemos enormemente su colaboración y apoyo para ayudar a que su hijo(a) permanezca motivado(a), inspirado(a) y académicamente preparado(a) durante las vacaciones de verano.

Atentamente,
Administración de AcadeMir Charter Schools

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

SECOND LADY USHA VANCE

Dear Future Summer Readers,

Every book you open is an adventure – whether you are exploring new places, meeting new characters, or learning something new. A whole summer of reading fun is waiting just for you!

This summer, as we celebrate the 250th anniversary of America’s founding, we are excited to invite all children (K–8) to join in the Second Lady’s 2026 Summer Reading Challenge. Participants will read and track 12 books of their choice between June 1 and September 4. Every book counts!

When you finish your 12 books, ask your parents/guardians to let us know, and we will send you a personalized certificate, an America 250th anniversary-themed bookmark, and a special link to receive a prize! You will also be entered for a chance to visit our nation’s capital and the White House with a chaperone. Terms and conditions apply. More information can be found at wh.gov/read.

Where will your next book take you? We can’t wait to find out!

Terms and Conditions

Participation in the Second Lady of the United States' Summer Reading Challenge is voluntary and is intended to promote the benefits of reading among children and adolescents in the United States. By entering, each participant and his or her parent, guardian, or legal representative warrant that the participant meets all eligibility requirements for the Summer Reading Challenge. In consideration for the participation in this program, participants and their parents, guardians, or legal representatives release, discharge, indemnify and agree to hold harmless the U.S. government, its employees, officers, directors, agents, and partners from all claims, damages, demands, obligations, or losses of any kind related to this art contest. All communications regarding the Summer Reading Challenge, including announcement of winners, will be sent to the entrants' parent, guardian and/or legal representative. Selection as a winner is subject to the discretion of the U.S. government and does not guarantee that the individual will be able to participate in any or all of the activities for winners, nor does selection create any right or entitlement at law or equity. Winners are subject to additional security vetting processes, as well as other necessary terms and conditions related to prize acceptance. Winners' names and the contact information of the winners' parents, guardians and/or legal representatives (including home address, email address, and telephone number) may be shared with third parties for prize redemption purposes. If you would like to opt out of being considered for a prize and having this information shared with third parties, please contact the Summer Reading Challenge at read@mail.whitehouse.gov. All activities and awards are subject to availability of funding and may be modified or withdrawn without notice.
